Surf and Sand Club Scene of Beautiful Affair

Mrs. L. B. Kelsey was hostess at one of the most elaborate and beautiful appointed parties of the spring season when she entertained last Friday with a bridge luncheon at the Surf and Sand Club in Hermosa Beach.

Luncheon tables were set in the spacious dining room of the club, and were decorated with a color theme of green and gold. Low bowls of golden daffodils and sweet peas formed the floral motif.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Raymond Young; second Mrs. George W. Neill; consolation Mrs. Tom McGuire.

Invited were Mrs. Charles T. Pippy, Mrs. Tom McGuire, Mrs. R.

A. Huber, Mrs. J. S. Lanester, Mrs. Wallace Post, Mrs. P. G. Briney, Mrs. John W. McMillan, Mrs. George Peckham, Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, Mrs. Ted Frenger, Mrs. Raymond Young, Mrs. Charles Schultz, Mrs. George E. Neill, Mrs. Joe Stone, Mrs. Frank Paour, Mrs. Len Murray, Mrs. B. C. Buxton, Mrs. E. C. Nelson, Mrs. Bruce Elger, Mrs. Sam Levy, Mrs. George Worcester, Mrs. Florence Welch, Mrs. Frank C. Ebbert, Mrs. Brentwood Heights, Los Angeles, Mrs. Charles Jones of Long Beach, Mrs. F. L. Parks, Mrs. F. B. Dilley, Mrs. H. H. Dolley, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. W. Harold Kingsley, Mrs. R. J. Deisinger, Mrs. George Shilder and the hostess, Mrs. L. B. Kelsey.

Reciprocity Day Program at Women's Club Enjoyed

The Women's Club of Torrance was hostess at a thoroughly successful party, when Reciprocity Day was observed on Wednesday, March 19th. Visiting dignitaries included state and district officers, as well as officers and members of many neighboring clubs.

A delicious luncheon was served at half past twelve, and then the president, Mrs. Frank Sammons, in a gracious little speech, welcomed the visitors and presented Mrs. Sherwood, president of the district. Mrs. Sherwood responded in a talk stressing the importance of federation, driving home the point that no one, alone, can accomplish anything really worth while, while co-operative effort always meets with success.

Mrs. Dan Campbell, chairman of the Bible department, was next introduced. Her speech is as Scotch as her name, and she has the abounding vigor and enthusiastic faith of an old time revival preacher. Little Miss Eileen Maskrey, 5 years old, was next presented and she offered a thoroughly interesting course on men, prohibition, obscenity and what have you, her old maidish costume and horn rimmed glasses adding weight to her statements. Responding to whole-hearted applause, she appeared again as a little girl straight from fairyland, with her ruffled pink dress and big bow. This time she recited a sweet little poem called "Rainbows." Miss Maskrey is a real honest to goodness radio performer, and we are proud to have had her at the club.

Miss Hudson, chairman of American Home, was next introduced, and she responded with a very few words recalling a previous meeting she had attended at the Torrance club.

Mrs. E. C. Nelson then sang a group of these songs, "Love's in My Heart," "When I'm with You," and "Sleepy Hollow Tune," which were thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Guy K. Claire accompanied. As a final choice bit of entertainment the Torrance high school faculty presented a one-act playlet entitled "The Worm Turns," which sent the audience into gales of laughter.

After introduction of guests the meeting adjourned, and a day ending which will be long remembered by all who were fortunate enough to attend.

St. Patrick's Day Gayety Cheers the Ailing Guest

St. Patrick's Day was observed with all ceremony at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital on Monday. Luncheon trays were attractively arranged with symbols of the season.

On such trays was a vase of green sweet peas, Irish green rosebud nut cups filled with bright green candies, paper napkins, gayly formed with Irish figurines, took the place of honor in the napkin holders. Even the place cards sported bright green shamrocks.

To further carry out the St. Patrick idea were bits of parsley to garnish the plates, and asparagus salad topped with green mayonnaise.

Mrs. Florence Welch, who plans and supervises this work, plans for many days ahead to make the trays as attractive as possible. Every day there are flowers and place cards—such tiny things, and yet they play an important part in sending wordless cheer to the sick. Holidays—no matter how minor in importance, are always gala days at the hospital, for Mrs. Welch has planned for it in advance and has some bit of beauty or nonsense to decorate the luncheon trays.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HAS SILVER TEA
A charming St. Patrick's Day silver tea was given by the girls of Mrs. E. N. Tomkins' Sunday school class Monday afternoon in the new annex of the Methodist church.

Tea was served at tables attractively decorated in green and white, with table covers and floral decorations in those colors. A tiny shamrock with a jellied candy as its base, stood at each plate.

Prior to the tea a program was presented. Ella May Ott and Jimmy Hudge gave readings; Barbara Hall and Gertrude Meyer gave a duet, Barbara playing the violin and Gertrude the cello and accompanied by Mrs. O. E. Hall; reading by Junior Tomkins; and a song by Gafen Young. Mrs. E. N. Tomkins gave a short talk on the history of St. Patrick's day and told something of the life of the Saint.

MANY GUESTS AT K. C. DINNER
Green and white crepe paper and symbols of Old Erin decorated the tables at the Knights of Columbus dinner Monday evening, when nearly 100 guests sat down to a chicken dinner.

Following the dinner was a local orchestra.

INVITATIONS ISSUED FOR BUFFINGTON NUPTIALS
Invitations were issued this week by Mrs. Frances Fowler of Glendale to the wedding of her daughter, Kathryn Fowler, to Mr. Frank Mason Buffington of Torrance.

The marriage will take place at the Wee Kirk of the Heather in Glendale on Tuesday, March 25th at 5:30 p. m.

Mr. Buffington is manager of the J. C. Peck Company stores at Torrance and Miss Fowler is an accomplished musician. She came to Glendale in 1925 after receiving a B. A. degree in music at Washington State College, Pullman, Washington. The bride is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and Mr. Phi Epsilon, a national honorary musical fraternity. She is at present giving instruction in piano and theory at Glendale, and her early residence in Torrance is being looked forward to with pleasure by music loving townspeople.

W. C. T. U. MEDAL CONTEST
The W. C. T. U. will hold a silver medal contest March 24 at the Baptist church 7:30 p. m., corner of Carson and Marina street.

Dr. Nora McNeal, state director of medal contest work will be here and preside.
